
UNIT 1
INVITATIONS
Inviting • Accepting • Refusing • Giving Reasons
How about going to the concert?
That sounds great! I'd love to!
I'm sorry, I can't.
I have to study for my exam.
Friendship Mode is on PIZZA
MOVIE
CONCERT
GAME
TRIP
YOU?
GOOD FRIENDS
BRIGHT IDEAS
GREAT PLANS
Better Together
by mete.teacher

Before Making an Invitation

OTHER EXAMPLES

- Do you have any plans for Sunday?
- Are you free on Saturday?

OTHER EXAMPLES

- I don't have a plan.
- I have nothing to do on Saturday.

Making Invitations

OTHER EXAMPLES

- How about going to the cinema tomorrow evening?
- What about going on a picnic on Saturday?
- Do you want to come over to watch a film this evening?
- Why don’t you join us?

Accepting an Invitation

OTHER EXAMPLES

- Sure.
- Yeah, why not.
- It sounds great.
- It sounds awesome.
- Yeah, that would be great.
- I'm coming!

Refusing an Invitation

APOLOGIZING

- I'm sorry.
- I'm sorry, but...
- Sorry, but...

OTHER EXAMPLES

- I'm afraid I can't.
- Thanks for the invitation, but I can't join you.
- I'd love to, but I can't.
- I can't join you.

Giving Reasons / Making Excuses

OTHER EXAMPLES

- I'm visiting my grandparents.
- I have to help my brother do his project.
- I'm going to the cinema with my sister.
- I have other plans.
- I'm looking after my little brother.
- I promised my brother to help with his homework.

ACTIVITY 1

Read the speech bubbles and answer the questions.

1 Who makes an invitation? Leo

2 Who accepts the invitation?

Emma | Jack | Zoe

3 Who refuses the invitation and gives a reason? Tom Lisa

4 Who refuses the invitation without an excuse? Mia

5 Who has an excuse about his / her family? Tom

ACTIVITY 2

Read and order the dialogues.

A. Sure! What time does it start?

B. Are you busy tomorrow evening?

C. Great! See you then.

D. No, not at all. Why?

E. Would you like to come to my guitar performance?

F. It starts at seven o'clock.

A Why not?

B Hi, David. What about going to the match tomorrow?

C OK. I hope we can watch the next match together. Take care.

D I promised my cousin to help him with his project.

E I'd love to, but I can't. I'm sorry.

THE END
Thanks for joining!
by mete.teacher
A BRIGHTER TOMORROW TOGETHER